MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

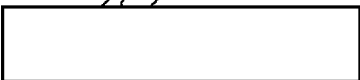

SUBJECT: Missing Persons Act - Legislation

1. P.L. 90-236 (H.R. 12961) amends Title 37 for the benefit of members of the Armed Forces who are in a "Missing Persons Act" status.

2. The general objective is to overcome a Comptroller General decision (B-141976 of March 9, 1960) denying nontemporary storage of household goods for Armed Forces members under the "Missing Persons Act," and, thus, limiting storage to 180 days.

3. The specific remedy is to authorize the Secretary of the Service concerned to permit the storage of household and personal effects for a period of one year, or longer when justified.

4. Since this enactment applies only to military members of the Armed Forces, this new development in the missing person field has been called to the attention of appropriate officials for their review and recommendation.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WARNER

SUBJECT: Administrative Authorities

1. This is to advise you of a possible problem arising out of the adoption of certain allowances, travel and related expenses benefits under the "Administrative Authorities" program.

2. Section 523 of P.L. 86-707 "Overseas Differentials and Allowances Act" amended Section 912 of the Internal Revenue Code to specify that:

"The following items shall not be included in gross income, and shall be exempt from taxation under this subtitle:

"(1) FOREIGN AREAS ALLOWANCES.--In the case of civilian officers and employees of the Government of the United States, amounts received as allowances or otherwise (but not amounts received as post differentials) under--

"(B) section 4 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended (50 U.S.C., sec. 403e), "

3. Apparently the above cited amendment gives Federal Income Tax exemption to the travel allowances received under Section 4 of P.L. 110. The question arises whether this holds true for travel allowances received by virtue of adoption of other authorities--and whether such allowances are received "under" such other authorities or "under" Section 8.
